A: Install your targeted version of vSphere client. Remove any other vSphere versions If you only need vSphere client to run vSphere 5.5, then you need to go to the VMware Server. Look for VMware Server. Open it and make sure that the version matches your targeted vSphere client. As the Senate Judiciary Committee prepares to investigate whether President Trump obstructed justice in his dealings with Comey, the House also is turning its attention to the matter. Now an independent counsel has been appointed to look at whether Trump's campaign conspired with Russian officials to influence the outcome of the presidential election. "With the Comey firing, the Russia probe already had begun. At the time, there was a lot of talk about obstruction of justice by the president," said Norm Eisen, who served as special counsel to President Obama from 2009 to 2011. "At the same time, the president of the United States was in charge of the nation's nuclear arsenal, it seems to me a blatant case of obstruction of justice." "If you're looking at this as just a fact of life on the job, there were a lot of times that I didn't think I could do anything about it," Eisen said, recalling his tenure. "It was like trying to distract prosecutors as a defense lawyer. There were many times when the decision was just taken out of your hands," he said. But if the threat of impeachment isn't enough to force lawmakers to act, Eisen suggests the possibility of impeachment proceedings will help clarify the matter. "I'd like to see [the probe] continue, and I'd like it to be seen that there is a lot more investigation than just one person," said Eisen, who served as special counsel to President Obama and is now a fellow at the Brookings Institution. Rep. Steve Cohen (D-Tenn.) said Friday that Trump's actions had created "an unacceptable crisis of law and order" and that "Trump is sabotaging his presidency." "The impeachment process is the best option to remove Trump from the presidency," Cohen said. "The only alternative is him abusing the powers of the office." Cohen has said that he is considering moving to impeach Trump,
