MEMBER 3.0.. Dear Sons & Daughters, : Would you please send me a. pearls, I have a friend here in North Caroli a well-to-do man in this. town,. "Yes," he replied, "you can keep the. is in his South Carolina home; he couldn't take them with him. to each other. Some women buy pearls for their husband's. It is true that pearls are generally purchased for a particular use and most of the pearls heretofore bought were too small to wear and consisted of little more than a shining bead around the hole of a little gold hoop. ... This last pearl had long waves in it which were very beautiful.. The single strand necklace looked very pretty and altogether different from the multi-strand pearl necklaces. I had worn the single strand pearl necklace many times in my life and even at this stage, the old family pearl necklace still appeared somewhat out of place in my new silk dress and hat. . A kind woman explained to me that she was going to give the necklace to a Mrs. W----; she explained that Mrs. W----'s husband was a certain -- a very prominent person, and that by offering the necklace to me, she was sure that it would be appreciated and give me more ease and freedom in the world. She expected me to wear it before many people, because she wanted me to enjoy it and not make a big fuss. She said that the woman had the money, and I must accept the gift. In accepting the gift. I felt somewhat strange receiving a beautiful. pearls from a woman of whom I had never known anything good about and from whose husband I had never heard anything good about. . but I didn't care how much or who was giving them to me. The new pearl necklace was a beautiful thing and I was greatly pleased with the gift. Mrs. W----, whose husband was very prominent, was a very pleasant woman and she came over and spoke to me as if we were old friends. She said, "Mrs. Blake. I know you are a favorite in the company, and I know you are fond of wearing pearls. . Mrs. C--- is very fond of you, and I am sure that you have a great deal of influence over her. You. pearl necklace is a very desirable and popular necklace and I know that you are very careful with it. .
